

Azra Kuci graduated from the Law School, University of Sarajevo and she received her advanced master degree with distinction from the Geneva Academy of International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights. She was awarded a Swiss Confederation Scholarship for foreign academic researchers in 2011. She recently worked as a Consultant for American Bar Association, Justice Rapid Response in Geneva, and the British Embassy in BiH. Her previous working experience includes working as Legal Adviser for the European Union Police Mission in BiH and Legal Officer at the Prosecutor's Office of BiH, Special Department for War Crimes.